A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the creation of a state advisory committee on youth suicide prevention.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Subchapter A, Chapter 11, Education Code, is amended by adding Section 11.152 to read as follows:

Sec. 11.152. YOUTH SUICIDE PREVENTION ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

(a) The commissioner of education shall appoint an advisory committee on youth suicide prevention consisting of an appropriate number of representatives of suicide and crisis centers accredited by the American Association of Suicidology. The members of the committee serve two-year terms.

(b) The committee shall provide advice and assistance to the Central Education Agency, other state agencies, and public schools in developing and implementing policies, procedures, and programs relating to the prevention of and response to suicide or attempted suicide by public school students.

SECTION 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

BILL ANALYSIS

BACKGROUND: A recurring theme found by the House Select Committee on Teenage Suicide study is the lack of central organization to network resources, plan policy and develop a clearinghouse for suicide information. The formation of a Youth Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee could help to ensure that Texas' efforts in preventing and dealing with teen suicide could start off and remain an organized, effective effort. Membership of the committee could consist of legislative leaders, the Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, education groups, TEA, PTA, teacher organizations, superintendent association and mental health groups, suicide specialists, or drug specialists. The pursuit of suicide prevention is an ongoing task and many states have already taken this important step.

PURPOSE: Development of a statewide Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Amends Chapter 11 (Central Education Agency) by adding Section 11.152 (Youth Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee).

Subsection (a) requires the commissioner of education to appoint the committee, members of which would include accredited members of the American Association of Suicidology as well as representatives from other appropriate entities.

Subsection (b) details the responsibilities of the committee to advise and assist agencies to be coordinated in the development and implementation of a program to deal with teen suicide.

Section 2. Emergency Clause, effective with passage.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY: It is the opinion of the committee that this bill delegates no rulemaking authority to any state agency, officer, department or institution.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION:

HB 2322 was considered in a public hearing on April 25, 1989. At that time, the following witnesses testified in favor of the bill: Judie Smith, American Inst. of Suicidology; Sandy Kibby, ATPE; Betty Phillips, AISD Office of Student Support Services; Debra Desrosiers; Barbara Waisman, Tx. Assn. for Counseling and Development. The following indicated support of the bill but did not testify: Tricia Bosak, TSTA. There were no witnesses in opposition to the bill. The bill was referred to a subcommittee to be named by the Chair. On May 3, the Chair brought the bill back before the full committee as pending business. Mr. Arnold offered an amendment to the bill which would add representatives from other appropriate entities to membership on the Youth Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee. The amendment was adopted. Mr. Arnold moved that HB 2322 be reported, AS AMENDED to the full House with the recommendation that it do pass and be placed on the Consent calendar. The motion carried by the following record vote: Aye: Glossbrenner, Luna, Colbert, Arnold, Edge, Grusendorf, Hammond (7); Nay: 0 PN: 0 Absent: Berlanga, Schoolcraft (2).

FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on House Bill No. 2322 (relating to the creation of a state advisory committee on youth suicide prevention) this office has determined the following:

The bill would make no appropriation but could provide the legal basis for an appropriation of funds to implement the provisions of the bill.

The bill would require the Commissioner of Education to appoint an advisory committee on youth suicide prevention.

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) would have minimal administrative expenses associated with providing staff support to the advisory committee. The 1990-91 biennial costs would be about $20,000 with similar costs thereafter.

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

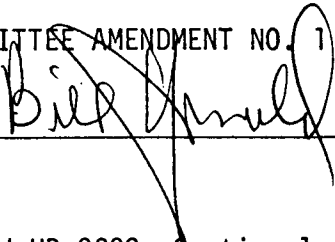

Criminal Justice Policy Impact Statement: No change in the sanctions applicable to adults convicted of felony crimes is anticipated.
